South-West

The Heartland

In the heartland of the South-West of France each department has its own culture. You will be able to see the nice coastside of the country as well as beautiful vineyards, accompanied by meadows and fields.

The Pyrénées

The roads through the mountains in the South of France offer a mesmerizing view on the landscape beyond.

Gate to the Pyrénées

The city of Pau builds the connection between the beautiful landscape of the South-West of France with the stunning views from the Pyrénées.

Because of its location Pau offers the perfect location to relax and get some rest before taking on the mountains on the next day.

With its history in car races, the spirit of motorsports lies in the air and it makes Pau the ideal destination for your car rally.

On the boulevard des Pyrénées you have the possibility to get a first look at the mountains and it gives you the perfect opportunity to finish your day in a relaxed atmosphere.
